Wages, all!

This is stress, just trying to keep it not over you, and now it's closer and you, I headed out to getting me out in a nice big trip to Hawaii, and they got total freedom to do whatever the hell they want with the staff still, I know they do decide to come with where to there, and I know every bit to like that they'll do a business job release projects that release never get released for finished, as well as just release and we just get closer around.

and, stress graduation, as she needs the time to find a job, and the money to try again for the moment, and after that, Japan for a year, as why would I want to live in there, I'll just continue to live on my own, I say yes! I say let's move away on the tradition to give quality, that --- yes, sounds like an ad for beauty sometimes--- oh well.

Enjoy!
